HET ANKER

One of the oldest Belgium's breweries, dating back to 1369, Het Anker is famous for its well crafted strong ales. Some parts of the present brewery are parts of the original fifteenth century plant. We are pleased to offer their entire export range. Suitable for cellaring due to very long tenability - two to ten years for most of these beers. Call for details and seasonal availability of beers such as Cuvee van de Keizer, Easter and Christmas beers. These beers are highly rated on BeerAdvocate and RateBeer.
